Re: October Quarterly Report (07/01/07 - 09/30/07)

Dear Mr. Jones:

This submission and the amended report being filed today is in response to your review of the above referenced report.

1. The Committee has not accepted a contribution from a corporation or other impermissible source. The Committee has not been able to substantiate that Mike's Wholesale is incorporated, and has received verbal information that the contribution is from a sole proprietor. The Committee decided to refund the contribution when the contributor failed to return documentation confirming this information.

2. The Committee has taken steps to correct the potential excessive contributions noted. All contribution refunds made will be reported on the Year End Report. Committee staff has reviewed the contribution records to ensure that all contributions are within the limits.

--Tony Crabb. A contribution refund in the amount of $200 was issued on 11/07/07.

--Rodger Gray. The $1000 contribution received on 9/30/07 has been presumptively re-designated to the General election.

--Mark Levy. There are two separate individual contributors named Mark Levy (neither provided a middle name or initial.) Neither has contributed in excess of the limit. These individuals live in different areas of the country, have different employment information, and different signatures.

--Lenton Malry Sr. A contribution refund in the amount of $250 has been issued.

--Sarah Robertson. The contribution received on 9/28/07 has been allocated $1,150 to Ms. Robertson for the Primary election, $150 presumptively redesignated to her spouse, Fraser Robertson, and $1000 presumptively redesignated to the General election.

--Greg Sadler. The contribution received on 9/24/07 has been presumptively re-designated to the General election.

--David Steinborn. The contribution received on 9/27/07 has been presumptively re-designated to the General election.

--Vivian Steinborn. The contribution received on 9/27/07 has been presumptively re-designated to the General election.

--Marge J. Tomada. The contribution received on 9/30/07 has been presumptively re-designated to the General election.

--Mary Carole Wertheim. The contribution received on 9/28/07 has been presumptively re-designated to the General election.

--Ray Willis. The contribution received on 9/30/07 has been presumptively re-designated to the General election.

--U.A. Political Education Committee. The contribution received on 9/30/07 was designated by that political committee $5000 to the Primary election and $5000 to the General election. A contribution refund for the excessive amount designated to the Primary has been issued.

--Cow Creek Bank of Umpqua Tribe of Indians. A contribution refund in the amount of $2300 has been issued.

3. The election cycle to date aggregates for the following contributors are correct: Kenneth Aron, Maribeth A. Benham, and Michael Loftin. Ms. Louise Adenauer's aggregate is corrected in amended report. Please note that Ms. Benham made a contribution in the amount of $1,000 on 6/15/07 but due to a typographical mistake, which has since been corrected in the Committee's records, her name was mis-spelled (as Behnam) on the July 15th quarterly report. All contributions
